J. J. Keller® Mission

To be our customers' first choice for expertise in effectively managing safety, risk, regulatory compliance and best practice.

"Our success is inextricably tied to our clients' success. We don't consider ourselves successful until our customers have achieved their goals of compliance and risk mitigation."

Emily Samsa, Director of Client Success

In their own words, here's some reasons why hundreds of customers are making the switch to Encompass.

...we were up and running in 10-20 days with 180 units located all over the country.

OPTIONAL IMPLEMENTATION SERVICE

...the best partner for us was J. J. Keller, and a large part of that was the technical support available to help...
